AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, Oct. 1—Columbia playing a lightning fast game defeated Wesleyan today by a score of 16 to 0.

In the first half the Methodists gained five yards only once, but in the second half after a penalty of fifteen yards on the Blue and White for a foul, Wesleyan got the ball on downs, and using delayed passes, with Eyster and Goodman carrying the ball most of the time, got within two yards of a touchdown, only to lose the leather on downs. Metzenhain's dashing quarter-back runs and all-round excellent generalship in handling the team, coupled with great work by Duell, Fisher, O'Loughlin, Thorpe, Strangland and Brown made up the features of Columbia's victory.

FIRST HALF.
Columbia won the toss and made Wesleyan kick off. Gliderose kicked over the goal line and the ball was kicked back to Wesleyan. Duell got the second try at the 3-yard line, where he was down. O'Loughlin plunged five yards through the Wesleyan line. Duell was hurt and left the game and Bragg took his place. Fisher punted poorly to Wolf at Wesleyan's 34-yard line. A trick kicked three yards. Duell got the ball on a fumble at Wesleyan's 20-yard line. Metzenhain ran twenty yards to the 40-yard line. Duell kicked a 40-yard field goal. Score—Columbia, 6; Wesleyan, 0.

SECOND HALF.
Duell ran the kick off back 25 yards to his own 40-yard line. Thorpe and Strangland put the ball on the center line. O'Loughlin got 40 yards at Onthrop. Fisher got three. Thorpe put the ball on the 1-yard line. O'Loughlin scored. Duell failed at a 40-yard field goal. Score—Columbia, 16; Wesleyan, 0.

SECOND HALF.
Neither team made any changes. Wesleyan formed to kick after two tries at the line, but got five yards for off-side. Elster was downed for a loss. Duell got the ball to center on a punt. Duell, Strangland and Onthrop. Brown and Duell all gained easily to the twelve yard line. Fisher and Duell put the ball a yard from the line. Duell scored. Duell failed at a 40-yard field goal. Score—Columbia, 16; Wesleyan, 0.

SECOND HALF.
Algethner relieved Thorpe and Duell replaced O'Loughlin for Columbia. Cole kicked over the goal line. Fisher punted out to Wesleyan's 50-yard line. Cole punted to the 40-yard line. Duell kicked a 40-yard field goal. Score—Columbia, 16; Wesleyan, 0.

SECOND HALF.
Eyster ran 15 yards on a delayed pass, and Thorpe got enough to put the ball at Columbia's 40-yard line. Duell was hurt. Duell gained 3 yards. Eyster gained 3 yards on a shift. Two yards from the goal line. Duell was hurt. Duell took his place. Strangland covered for a gain, and Metz gained enough to put the ball on Wesleyan's 40-yard line. Duell scored. Duell failed at a 40-yard field goal. Score—Columbia, 16; Wesleyan, 0.

SERVICES FOR DR. NAVARRO.

Body Will Be Taken to Mexico City for Interment.

In the presence of a gathering of mourners, which included many of the consular corps in New York, as well as many prominent Spanish-American residents, the funeral of Dr. Juan N. Navarro, Mexican Consul-General and dean of the consular service here, was held to-day in the Church of the Holy Cross, No. 33 West Forty-second street. The service, a solemn requiem mass, was conducted by Rev. Joseph Smith, assisted by Rev. Joseph A. Foley and Rev. James Ferris as deacons. The immediate relatives present were the widow and Dr. Navarro's only son, Juan A. Navarro. Others were the Mexican Charge d'Affaires at Washington and representatives of the leading consulates.

The body was taken to a receiving vault at Calvary Cemetery until next Thursday, when it will be taken to Vera Cruz on a Ward line steamship and buried at Tepic, near Mexico City, where Dr. Navarro's first wife and daughter are buried.

PREFER NEW TO OLD SCHOOL

Three classes of boy pupils of Public School No. 126, Fourth avenue and Forty-first street, Brooklyn, are making a stormy protest against their transfer to School No. 92 at Fourth avenue and Thirty-sixth street.

No. 126 is a fine new building that is known in Brooklyn school as "The Palace." No. 92 is an ancient edifice that the boys have dubbed the "Coal Bin." Naturally when they were transferred from the palatial school-house to the "Coal Bin" they rebelled, and declared they would leave the matter before the district leaders.

They have held several indignation meetings and have obtained appointments to meet Fire Commissioner William A. Doyle, the Democratic leader, and Thomas L. Hambro, who they hope will see them out of their difficulty.
